

Tens Of Thousands Of Nuclear Warheads Give U.S. Wide Lead Over Reds

Blast Power Bulwarks U.S. Treaty Stand

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said today the United States has nuclear warheads in the tens of thousands and the limited test ban treaty would help preserve a nuclear lead over Russia.

In giving his "unequivocal support" to the treaty which would ban all but underground tests, he assured the Senate the United States is determined to maintain a nuclear force that is "manifestly superior to the Soviet Union's."

"By limiting Soviet testing to the underground environment," he declared, "we can at least retard Soviet progress and prolong the duration of our technical superiority."

MILITARY BACKING

Thus in an opening, prepared statement for the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and members of other interested committees, McNamara gave military backing to the treaty much as Secretary of State Dean Rusk supported it Monday on diplomatic grounds.

Some 12 hours before McNamara went to Capitol Hill, the Atomic Energy Commission announced the underground detonation at its Nevada test site of a nuclear device of low yield.

This was the first nuclear explosion since the United States, Britain and Russia signed the treaty a week ago in Moscow.

UNPRECEDENTED DISCUSSION

McNamara's defense of the treaty—an unprecedented public discussion of U.S. nuclear capabilities—was, in effect, a reply to those who fear the ban would work to the military disadvantage of the United States.

He gave detailed figures on nuclear weapons which until now have been carefully censored out of all published testimony.

U.S. Plans To Extradite Former Venezuelan Chief For Embezzling Millions

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A paternity suit appeared today to be the only barrier holding up return of Marcos Perez Jimenez, former Venezuelan dictator, to his homeland to face trial for embezzlement.

The U.S. State Department announced Monday that Perez Jimenez, accused of embezzling more than $13 million in public funds, would be extradited. A chartered plane was sent from Caracas to take him home.

It was the first time the United States approved extradition of a former chief of government and it climaxed a legal fight lasting more than four years.

Perez Jimenez, however, remained in federal custody in the Dade County jail where he has been since Dec. 12, 1962, while his attorneys explored every legal avenue of escape.

The latest development came last Thursday when Judge Robert Anderson of Dade County Circuit Court signed an order forbidding

Kiwanis Given Convention Report

The weekly meeting of the local Kiwanis Club was held at the Lamp Post Tea Room Monday evening when a tape recording of the highlights of the Kiwanis International Convention held at Atlantic City June 30 to July 4 was presented by Edwin A. Kann and Dr. George A. Wolfe, who was a delegate to the convention, filled in with additional information.

Kittredge A. Wing, superintendent of the Gettysburg National Military Park, was inducted into the club as a new member by Herbert G. Hamm. Guests present included Millard R. Shoff from the Hanover Kiwanis Club and Howard Weil from Baltimore.

The club voted to hold an outing at the Kiwanis pavilion in the Recreation Park on August 26. Next week's meeting will be held at the Lamp Post Tea Room with Dr. J. Milton Bell as the speaker. His topic will be "Question of Authority."

UPPER ADAMS WILL CONTINUE BIBLE READING

The Upper Adams School District will continue to begin each school day with Bible readings under the direction of the school administration, members of the school board were told Monday evening at the August meeting of the directors. Pupils who present requests from their parents to be excused will be assigned to the school auditorium or other unoccupied rooms for the brief period.

Donald B. Hudson, school superintendent, told 17 directors who attended the meeting that "we have not been informed officially against Bible reading, and we will stop only if someone objects." He said that in his opinion the intent of the law was against "forceful" reading of the Bible in classrooms.

"We have always practiced 'permissive' Bible reading, and any youngster who is offended by the practice has been excused at the request of his parents," Hudson said. He added that he received numerous calls from parents who have asked that Bible reading be continued in the Upper Adams District.

WEIGHED ALTERNATIVES

Hudson said that several alternatives have been considered in the event that the schools are ordered officially to discontinue the practice. He said that an informal survey of other schools in the county indicate that administrators will continue under their established procedures.

The Upper Adams directors were told that Mrs. Carol Nyce, a graduate of West Chester State College and a former kindergarten school operator, has agreed to teach Second Grade at the Biglerville Elementary School. The position was vacated by the resignation of Mrs. Sandra Coble.

Hudson reported that the new teacher salary increase favors beginning teachers over experienced teachers and will be $4,200 this year and $4,500 next year.

LIONS HOST FAMILIES

Gettysburg Lions observed family night at the Kiwanis pavilion in the Recreation Park Monday evening. About 150 attended with games and prizes for winners of games for the youngsters. The Shetter Catering Service served the meal.

RUNK CLEARED IN CAR CRASH KILLING WIFE

An Adams County coroner's jury Monday afternoon blamed the rain and exonerated the driver in its inquest into the death of Mrs. Genevieve H. Runk, 22, Cashtown, who died August 4 at the Warner Hospital, three days after she had been critically hurt in an auto accident between McKnightstown and Flohr's Church.

Mrs. Runk, at the time of the accident, was a passenger in a car operated by her husband, Ronald K. Runk, 22, Cashtown. Runk's car skidded off the "old Lincoln Highway" and crashed into a concrete abutment. Mrs. Runk suffered a concussion of the brain and an intercranial hemorrhage.

Runk told the jury that he was driving toward Gettysburg on the morning of August, taking his wife and month-old son to a physician's office here for the baby's monthly check up. Rain was falling when he left Cashtown, he said, and "just as we got to Flohr's Church it started to rain hard, a downpour." He said because of the rain he turned on the lights of his car so any approaching vehicle would be able to see him and began to slow down.

YOUNGSTERS ON BIKE

He estimated he was traveling at about 35 to 40 miles an hour "when I saw two youngsters with bicycles along the side of the road and one running across in front of me. I don't know if it was a boy or girl, but he had a red bicycle. I was almost on top of the kids before I saw them. I swerved to miss the youngster with the bicycle. He was pushing the bicycle. I cut sharp and the car started skidding." He said he did not see a fourth youngster with a bicycle who was on the north side of the road and

BAIR CLAIMS CONEWAGO TAX IS INVALID

Glenn E. Bair, 301 Boundary Ave., Hanover, operator of the Hanover Bowling Center, has appealed to the Adams County court a fine levied against him by Justice of the Peace Donald Krepps of McSherrystown on the basis of failure to pay the Conewago Twp. amusement tax on admissions to his center.

Bair, through Attorney Gerald E. Walmer, alleges that the Conewago Twp. ordinance levying the amusement tax is "invalid." When brought before Justice Krepps by Conewago Twp. Police Officer Thomas Carbaugh, Bair was fined $50 and ordered also to pay the costs of $9.75. Payment of the fine and costs was suspended pending the appeal.

VALIDITY CLAIM

Bair claims that the Conewago Twp. amusement tax ordinance is invalid because it was advertised April 20, April 23 and April 30 and enacted May 3 "which does not conform with the requirements" of the governing state law.

He also alleges that the ordinance was adopted on May 3 to become effective May 10 "which was not 30 days or longer from the time of enactment as required by the law of taxing ordinances."

The ordinance provides a four-cent levy on admissions up to 49 cents, five cents on all admissions between 50 and 74 cents and 6 cents on everything above 74 cents. It also provides a 10 percent levy for "seasonal or annual" admissions. Bair holds that the rate makes the ordinance invalid because under the 4-cent figure it "would be possible for the tax to exceed the 10 percent allowable by law."

The Adams County court gave the township supervisors 15 days to show cause why the appeal should not be allowed.

torium. She will be assisted by Miss Harriett Carr and Miss Sime in this year's "Spotlight on Foods" program.

Miss Robinson, an excellent showman and accomplished home economist, will present 30 recipes prepared under her direction. About 10 dishes will be presented daily in view of the homemakers attending the demonstrations.

The programs are as educational as they are entertaining, offering tips on the nutritional aspects of meal planning as well as other valuable information on food cooking. "Spotlight on Foods" recipe books will supplement the demonstration. These contain all 30 of the recipes for the home-maker's permanent file.

EXTENSIVE BACKGROUND

A native of Tennessee, Miss Robinson received her degree in home economics from the University of Tennessee, where she also did graduate work in food and nutrition. She worked for more than three years as home demonstration agent in Lauderdale County, Tenn., assisting homemakers and 4-H club girls and conducting a weekly radio program.

She recently returned from England where she represented the Meat Board in a six-month cooperative promotion program. She conducted cooking schools in England and participated in trade fairs, as well as working with schools and public utilities. In 1952 Miss Robinson represented Tennessee at the National Cherry Pie Contest in Chicago and took second prize for the southern region.

Scouts Are Invited To Farm-City Day

The Gettysburg Young Farmers today issued a special invitation to all Boy Scout and Girl Scout units to visit the Clarence Eyer farm at Barlow Saturday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. during the fifth annual Farm-City Day.

Members of the committee in charge observed that the Farm-City Day program with its tours of the fields explaining the farming process and guided tours of the barns and other facilities is "an excellent way to learn more about agriculture" and thus issued the special invitation to Scout groups and others interested in learning more of their communities.

BIBLE, PRAYER WILL STAY IN SCHOOLS HERE, BOARD RULES

When Gettysburg's public schools open three weeks from today, sessions will begin with Bible reading and the Lord's Prayer just as they have for decades.

That decision was made Monday evening by the Joint School Committee of the Gettysburg Joint School Board Monday evening by a vote of 11 to 2.

The Joint School Committee is made up of two representatives of each member school district and transacts most of the school business under the present plan of organization.

COMMITTEE REVERSED

The action came after a discussion of more than 35 minutes. The matter was brought before the 13-man committee by Chairman Thomas O. Oyler of the Teacher and Curriculum Committee.

He presented a recommendation of the committee that a "suitable substitute" for Bible reading and the Lord's Prayer be developed by the administration and used for opening exercises during the coming year.

Oyler presented the recommendation and then moved that it be rejected, reflecting an apparent division of opinion within the ranks of the seven-member Teacher and Curriculum Committee. He did not say how his committee had stood on their vote for a substitute opening program.

DIRECTORS GOT CALLS

No directors said they had received requests from patrons that Bible reading and the Lord's Prayer be discontinued in view of the recent U. S. Supreme Court opinion.

Several directors said they had received calls from parents and other patrons urging that Bible reading and prayer be continued

NAWAKWA IS ROTARY TOPIC MONDAY NIGHT

The story of Camp Nawakwa, founded in 1928 near Brysonia for the development of "effective Christian leadership," was outlined Monday evening by Robert Zeigler, director of the camp, to the local Rotary Club at its meeting held in the Cashtown Lions community picnic grounds near Cashtown.

Since last year the camp has been owned "outright by the Central Pennsylvania Synod of the United Lutheran Church but there has been no change in the program and I don't see how there could be any change from the ideals laid down by Dr. M. Hadwin Fischer when he established the camp," Zeigler said.

Zeigler said the local Rotary Club was intimately connected with the founding of Camp Nawakwa. Dr. Fischer, an active member of the local Rotary Club, was chairman of the committee seeking to establish a Lutheran camp. Four sites had been considered, one near Williamsport, another near Lock Haven, a third near Lewistown and the site near Brysonia, which was finally selected.

HAD NO FUNDS

The committee for the camp had no funds. "According to the history prepared in 1948 by Mrs. M. Hadwin Fischer, a young bond salesman arose at a Gettysburg Rotary meeting and made an eloquent and impassioned plea in which he held that Adams County has no business to allow the camp elsewhere." The then president of the Rotary Club appointed a committee which raised the $5,000 which permitted the camp to begin.

Dr. Harold Dunkelberger presided at the Rotary meeting and expressed the appreciation of the club to Col. Corvan Bryan, Dr. John Zinn and their committee which served the meals prepared by an Ortonna church group.

Donald Hershey, president of the Cashtown Lions, welcomed the Rotarians to the picnic site and urged the club to "make use of our facilities at any time."

Vice President C. William Harbaugh announced that next Monday evening the Rotarians will dine at 6 o'clock at the Kiwanis pavilion on Recreation Field and on August 26 a family night program will be held by the Rotarians beginning at 6:30 o'clock at Hickory Bridge Farms, Ortonna.

Stockholders OK Merger Proposal

Stockholders of the Biglerville National Bank, meeting this morning at 11 o'clock in the bank, unanimously approved the agreement to merge with the Gettysburg National Bank.

Oscar C. Rice was chairman of the merger committee. Directors of the Gettysburg National Bank are scheduled to meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock to vote on the proposal.

WILL CONTINUE BIBLE, PRAYER AT BERMUDIAN

Directors of the Bermudian Springs Joint School District voted Monday evening at their August meeting to continue for a limited time the former practice of Bible reading and prayer to open each school day.

The decision was made on recommendation of the supervising principal, Amos D. Meyers, who suggested that a committee of teachers and community representatives be set up to compile an anthology of poetry and other inspirational readings. When such a compilation is ready, the school board's plan is that such readings, plus silent meditation be used to replace the Bible reading and prayer.

Mr. Meyers suggested the temporary continuance of the Bible reading and prayer "rather than have a vacuum" until the substitute material is ready or until some directive is received from the state Department of Public Instruction.

NEED TWO TEACHERS

President Paul Lerew presided at the meeting at which the resignation of Samuel Ebersole was accepted as driver education and social studies teacher. That position will be filled by a reassignment of teachers but Principal Meyers told the board there is a Fifth Grade elementary teaching position open at East Berlin and a position as home economics teacher at the Bermudian Springs High School.

Elmer G. "Jack" Miller, a Sixth Grade teacher at East Berlin, was appointed as assistant football coach.

After a lengthy discussion of various plans for merit increases, the board turned down a recommendation that teachers with two years or more of experience be given an extra $200 increment during the coming year in addition to the $300 jump mandated by the state. The proposal was made to offset inequities in salaries for some experienced teachers under the new state salary law.

MORE STATE AID

The supervising principal told the board new legislation will increase teachers' salaries by $9,000 this year in the district while state appropriations will go up $26,315.

Mrs. Baird Hershey, York Springs, was elected as cafeteria cashier on a part-time basis at the high school and Merle Wilson, York Springs, was elected as the driver for the new bus the district is adding this year. The board turned over to the transportation

House Committee Vote Is Near On $10 Billion Tax Cut Pushed By Kennedy

By EDMOND LEBRETON

WASHINGTON (AP)—A proposal to cut most Americans' income taxes an average of 15 1/2 per cent approached a crucial vote today in the House Ways and Means Committee.

The plan was worked out by the Treasury to complete a tax bill the committee has been putting together for most of the year. The House is expected to take up the legislation early next month. Action may take longer in the Senate, despite President Kennedy's pleas that a tax cut be enacted this year.

One key member of the committee said a vote by the tax writing group would come soon, perhaps today. Several said they expected agreement on rates approximating those proposed by the Treasury which revised its own earlier suggestions to conform with changes the committee has made in other parts of the tax program.

As unveiled Monday before the Charles L. Edwards, 35, Sunset Ave., New Oxford, was elected junior high school principal here by the Joint School Committee of the Gettysburg Joint School Board Monday evening.

Edwards, who is head of the of the New Oxford Junior-Senior High School and athletic director there, will succeed Clifford B. Snowberger who resigned a month ago to become senior high school principal at Kittanning, Pa. There were six applicants.

Three high school teachers were elected at the same session and four names were added to the list of approved substitute teachers.

Edwards' salary was set at $7,500. His election was unanimous on a roll call vote. He has taught at New Oxford for eight years and prior to that was a teacher and business education department head at the high school at Montgomery, Pa. He was also director of athletics there.

He is a graduate of the Shammokin High School in 1945 and from the Bloomsburg State College in 1951. He has earned the equivalent of a master's degree in postgraduate work at Bucknell and Western Maryland. He holds a secondary principal's certificate and a supervising principal's certificate and has performed extra administrative duties in both high schools in which he has taught. He once served as an administrative clerk in the state Department of Public Instruction. He is president of the New Oxford Lions Club and of the Junior Baseball League in that community. He is married and father of two children.

DEADLOCK VOTE

Edwards' election came after Thomas O. Oyler, chairman of the Teacher and Curriculum Committee, presented a committee report recommending the election of Harold W. Sanders, a former band instructor at Biglerville and now in the Cumberland Valley School System.

Oyler explained that the committee had been deadlocked three-to-three on recommendation for both Sanders and Edwards. Then a committee member who had earlier disqualified himself because he had not been present for all of the interviews switched his vote.

The Joint School Committee Monday evening went into executive session to discuss Oyler's motion to reject the recommendation and then passed it. Edwards' election followed.

Leslie Alper, Trenton, N. J., was elected guidance counselor in the junior high school at a salary of $5,600. A graduate of Penn State University, he is completing work this summer for his master's degree. He has had military service and three years of teaching experience.

SPANISH TEACHER

A Spanish teaching position in the high school was filled by the election of Jose Manuel Perez, a graduate of St. Joseph's College at Rensselaer, Ind., and of the University of Puerto Rico. His salary was set at $4,200.

The other high school teacher chosen is Richard F. Bouch, a graduate of Slippery Rock State College and the University of Pittsburgh, with 11 1/2 years of teaching experience. His salary was set at $5,600.

Mrs. Harold Dunkelberger and Shirley R. Kotheimer were appointed committee by Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon, the revised proposals would result in a net reduction of $10,645,000,000 in individual and corporate tax rates by 1965. Kennedy's proposals in January were estimated to net a $10,320,000,000 reduction.

Thus, the administration reshaped its rate reduction proposals to come up with approximately the same net result after taking into account changes made by the committee in the President's revenue-raising proposals.

A major factor, Dillon said, was the committee's rejection of a 5 per cent floor under itemized deductions. This provision would have cut down itemized deductions—for local taxes, interest, charity and the like—by allowing only the amount in excess of 5 per cent of a taxpayer's income.

FIND HIDEOUT OF GANG WHICH ROBBER TRAIN

LONDON (AP)—Scotland Yard announced today that police have found the hideout used by the gang which carried out the world's greatest mail train robbery.

The hideout is Leatherslade Farm at Oakley, 53 miles northwest of London. A truck and two army type vehicles were found there.

The police announcement said an intensive search was going on in the area but it appeared the robbers had left three days ago.

Some mail bags were found but there was no trace of the 2½ million pound ($7 million) loot taken from the Glasgow to London mail train robbery.

ISOLATED AREA
The brick farm house is in an isolated area. Its windows were blacked out. A large supply of food was found there.

Fingerprint experts and other police scientists were rushed to the area. The district was sealed off.

There were indications the bandit gang, believed to number 20 or 30 men, had been in the Buckinghamshire house several days and were trying to burn or bury something when they left in a hurry.

Earlier police officials hinted that a woman may have helped mastermind the robbery Thursday in which the loot was paper money.

WILL BE HOST TO YMCA GROUP

The Gettysburg Methodist Youth Fellowship will be host Wednesday evening to 70 members of the Janesville, Wis., YMCA at a dinner in the Methodist Church. The group is making an historical tour of the east coast and will tour the Gettysburg Battlefield Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Richard Deane, Gettysburg R. 3, said today that the boys, ranging in age from 12 to 16, will be accommodated in local homes Wednesday night and will leave from the Methodist Church Thursday morning at 7 o'clock to continue the tour which will take them to Valley Forge, Philadelphia and other eastern points. She said that a few additional homes are being sought by the local church for the overnight guests.

The Gettysburg program was arranged by Philip Jones, executive secretary of the tri-county Janesville YMCA, with officers of the local church. The boys will be accompanied by four adults. Host families will call for the boys at the church at 9 o'clock Wednesday evening and are asked to provide breakfast and a box lunch Thursday.

Fine Is Suspended In Accident Case

Charles W. Bollinger, Emmitsburg, was found not guilty on a hit and run charge and given a suspended $25 fine on an assault and battery charge before Magistrate Stanley Y. Bennett, Frederick, Md.

Miss Mary R. Mitchell swore out the warrant against Bollinger on the hit and run charge after Bollinger's truck caused an estimated $20 damage to her car. Since the accident occurred on private property and not on a public highway, the court ruled the hit and run charge was not applicable.

Miss Mitchell; her sister, Mrs. Geraldine M. Hewitt, Emmitsburg, and her brother, Larry Mitchell, all testified that when they tried to settle with Bollinger he threatened them and struck them.

Minor Damages In Two Car Accidents

Borough police investigated two minor accidents Monday afternoon.

At 4:15 Vergil V. Jacobson, Charles City, Ia., was driving from the Gettysburg Shopping Center parking lot into West St. when his car was struck in the rear by a station wagon operated by Dorothy E. Koballa, Manchester, N. H., police said. Damage was estimated at $50 to the car, nothing to the station wagon.

Larry Angell, 47 S. Franklin St., reported to borough police at 7 o'clock that a car had struck his vehicle while it was parked in Kenzie's lot. Police said the other car was operated by John Trostle, Gettysburg R. 6, who said he had failed to note any damage and continued on.

In both cases, police indicated, the parties involved settled the matters between themselves.

PAYS SHOPLIFTING FINE

Mrs. Mary G. L. White, Gardner R. 2, paid a $34 fine and costs on Saturday in Chambersburg before Justice of the Peace John S. Gillan on a charge of shoplifting. Police said the woman was accompanied by her three-year-old son.

BIBLE, PRAYER

as before. One director said he had attempted a sampling of opinion in his district, Cumberland Twp., and he found no one who favored a change in the system.

Superintendent of Schools H. Edgar Riegle and Attorney John A. MacPhail, representing the law firm that serves as legal counsel for the school district, were drawn into the discussion.

NO STATE DIRECTIVE

Mr. Riegle said there has been no directive from the state on any substitute plan.

He also reported on plans adopted by some other nearby school districts, some of which are continuing Bible reading and prayer "on a permissive basis" and others which are using a substitute plan of reading inspirational poems or speeches and using special music or a period of silent meditation.

Mr. MacPhail discussed the content and apparent intent of the 70-page Supreme Court opinion and said the board faces a "very difficult" decision. He said it seems apparent that the court intended that the ceremony of Bible reading and prayer at the opening of school be stopped because it is viewed as an abridgement of the right of religious freedom of a minority. He suggested a committee of directors might read the opinion and study its application.

NOT COMPULSORY

He told the board the opinion rules out Bible reading and prayer if it is required by a state. He said such a ruling by a school district has not been passed upon formally by the court.

The action rejecting the Teacher Committee recommendation carried with it a directive that Bible reading and the Lord's Prayer be continued in the local schools as before.

It was pointed out that, as before, it will not be a compulsory exercise and any pupil who wishes to avoid the exercise will be permitted to leave the room during the scripture reading and prayer.

The issue of Bible reading and prayer occupied a good part of one of the three meetings the Teacher and Curriculum Committee has held since the July meeting of the Joint School Committee.

Vice President Robert H. Dardoff presided at the meeting. Vice President Robert H. Dardoff presided at the meeting. Vice President Robert H. Dardoff presided at the meeting.

The board also took robbery and burglary insurance in the amount of $4,000 and messenger insurance of $2,500. Contracts for shopping equipment and supplies totaling $1,122 were awarded to a half dozen firms on the basis of their bids. The largest orders went to Hanover Hardware, $457; Biglerville Hardware, $282, and Brandt's at East Berlin for $142.

A professional contract was awarded to Miss Helen Stockham, an East Berlin elementary teacher who has completed her two-year probationary period.

The meeting adjourned at 11:45 p.m.

Glenn Feels Reds Have Space Flops

WASHINGTON (AP)—Astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. said today he believed the Russians have space craft failures in spite of their denials.

Asked about rumored deaths among Soviet astronauts, the Marine lieutenant colonel told a seminar of more than 6,000 college students holding summertime government jobs here that he knew of no facts to support those reports.

However, he said, it is difficult to believe they have not had any launching or flight failures at all, whether of manned or unmanned craft.

Pays Railroads: The Gettysburg Battle Anniversary Commission on Tuesday made settlement with twenty-eight railroads for transportation of veterans to the recent celebration.

We Can: Chambersburg Public

Opinion asks "What town in the Cumberland Valley can boast that all the sidewalks about the Public Square are of concrete? Chambersburg can do this, the last brick one, in front of the Burkhardt building, being torn up yesterday to make way for concrete." A stretch of concrete pavement has just been completed at the Barbeyhenn properties on North Stratton street extending for 412 feet from Stevens St. to the Tiber. It makes a decided improvement to that end of town.

Have Reclaimed Old Cemetery:

The old McClellan cemetery, west of town, along the banks of Marsh Creek, has been taken in charge by Gettysburg Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution who have superintended extensive repairs to the old burying ground. The cemetery, which is one of the landmarks in this vicinity, had become most unsightly through neglect but is now well worth visiting. It was originally known as the "Old Marsh Creek Cemetery" but later earned the name of McClellan's Cemetery. It is north of the stone bridge and Black Horse Tavern on the Fairfield Road. The headstones marking the burial places of the McClellans were moved to Evergreen Cemetery some time ago. Some of the names on the stones now found there are McDonough, Crawford, McCleary, Kincaid, Deal, Jamieson, Deal, Cross, Forney, Butts, Dunwoodie and Dunwoody. The burying ground is perhaps the oldest in the county and its being reclaimed by the Gettysburg Chapter is a matter of much gratification hereabouts.

The house was beautifully decorated with white roses and palms. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Whittier. After the reception the couple left on the 10:45 train east, arriving two days later, which they will remain with the groom's parents for a month. They will set sail for Porto Rico on Sept. 10th where the groom has accepted a position as a teacher. Mr. Weikert is well known among the people of Adams County. Today's Talk

KNOW WHAT YOU WANT
Personal identity is a gift from God. After all is said and done, we remain our own most perfect appraiser. We know ourselves, better than anyone can tell us, what we are, or what they think that we should do.

So each of us should know what we want — and why.
The progress of the youth who knows what he wants, and who sets his pace for the object of his dreams, is the one who will arrive successfully — no matter what that final destination may be.

"He who hesitates is lost" is true in more ways than one. We may make a false start, and be compelled to start afresh, and we may stumble many a time along the way of our course, but if we know what we want, time and experience smoothe all out for us.

The important thing in life is to keep interested in life, to keep the mind stimulated with interests, and the heart kept in a molten state toward all the needs of our fellow men. We are a bodily life, made up from the bodily life of generations and generations. Atoms of winners and failures alike flow through our blood stream. We are not only a part of all that we have seen and met, but all who have gone before us.

We know not from where the urges within us come, or originate—but there they are! To answer to their command is our God-given privilege. How fortunate any of us who feels them forever moving and crying out for action! Know what you want, and these same urges will come to carry you to heights, perhaps undreamed.

No one can get anywhere, or gain any objective until he knows exactly what it is that he wants. The way ahead is the way of all who have achieved in this world.

Just Folks

THE FINE SOULS

It is the little things which bring regret,
The happy thought which we have left unsaid
To one who now is slumbering with the dead
Whom yesterday in life's full flush we met;
That friendly visit promised oft, and yet
Neglected in the rush to forge ahead,
And now forever have those chances fled
And shame is ours that we could so forget.

The fine souls which we love so much are they
Who seem to think in time of all our needs,
They always gladly step across the way
To do for us their little kindly deeds.
They cheer the living in their troubled hours,
While we tomorrow send the dead our flowers.

RALSTON KEY TO U.S. WIN IN DAVIS CUP

LOS ANGELES (AP)—An unranked tennis player holds the key to the U.S. Davis Cup team regaining its lost international supremacy.
Wimbledon champion Chuck McKinley is counted on to win his matches for the United States in the interzone semifinals against Mexico starting Friday at the Los Angeles Tennis Club.

But Dennis Ralston, 21 of Bakersfield, Calif., needs to be on top of his game to insure the American team's advance in the Davis Cup competition.

RALSTON UNRANKED

Ralston admittedly is the second best player on the U.S. team, but he is unranked. Since 1950, when he teamed with Rafael Osuna, now of Mexico, to win the Wimbledon doubles title, Ralston has been suspended by the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association, has been sidelined by a bad knee, and then kept out of action by blisters on both hands.

Ralston's suspension was for "continually swearing, kicking his racket and snubbing Mexico's team captain, Francisco Contreras" in the Davis Cup matches in Cleveland in 1961.

University of Southern California tennis coach George Toley says Osuna and Contreras told him they believed the suspension unwarranted.

DENIES CHARGES

"He wasn't swearing continually, he didn't throw his racket and he didn't snub Contreras," said Toley.

But more importantly, Ralston gives evidence of having put his temperamental outbursts behind him, and his record this year is most impressive.

With his knee ailments cured, his hands fully healed, Ralston has beaten McKinley in the final round of the U.S. Indoor Championships. He had lost only two matches from January through late June.

ELROY STOPS COLTS' RALLY

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The boos have turned to cheers again for Elroy Face, the indestructible relief ace of the Pittsburgh Pirates. Labeled as "washed up" by many observers because of several ineffective performances in mid-season, Face, of late, has pitched as well as ever.

The 35-year-old fork ball specialist made his fifth appearance in five nights against the Houston Colt .45s Monday, stifling a ninth inning rally that preserved Bob Friend's 14th victory and gave the Pirates a 4-2 win.

It was Pittsburgh's seventh victory in the last eight games and kept them in a sixth-place tie with Philadelphia.

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP) — First round winners clash head-on today while the losers battle for survival in the 11th annual VFW Teener League World Series.

Second round pairings in the double elimination tournament found winner playing winner and loser playing loser.

Gloicester, N.J., was pitted against the Panama Canal Zone and Gastonia, N.C., took on West Allis, Wis., in the winner's bracket, while Chester, Pa., met Yankton, S.D., and Nogales, Ariz., was matched against Crestline, Ohio, in the do-or-die contest.

Gloicester, sparked by the two-hit pitching of Harry Watson, posted the only shutout Monday in the opening round, blanking Yankton, 5-0.

Gastonia downed Crestline 3-1.

me," Face said in the Pirate clubhouse after the game. "I don't even hear them any more."

"I know I've been in a little slump, but I was out for about 10 days with a pulled leg muscle and I was getting a little stale. I'm always more effective when I throw regularly—like the past few nights."

In each of the five games with the Colts, Manager Danny Murtaugh called upon Face to either halt a Houston rally or preserve a Pittsburgh lead. And he didn't fail.

WILLIE LICKS SLUMP AT BAT

By RALPH BERNSTEIN

Associated Press Sports Writer

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Willie

Mays has a formula for handling batting slumps: Don't get down on yourself; don't lose your courage or your confidence.

The 32-year-old outfielder for the San Francisco Giants has shaken one of the worst hit droughts of his fine career. After batting at about a .250 level most of the 1963 season he has upped his average to a respectable .290 and currently has a 14-game hitting string going.

What causes a slump?

"If I could explain what causes a slump I'd never go into one," commented Mays before Monday night's game with Philadelphia.

Mays, who has hit .344 since

July 1, said he expects slumps.

"I know I'm going to have at least one a season," he admits.

"The thing to do is not fight yourself about it. I know what I can do and know that if I keep doing

it I'll come out of it."

Vaulter's Injury Remains Critical

SEATTLE (AP)—The condition of injured pole vaulter Brian Sternberg remains stable, doctors at University Hospital reported Monday.

They said Sternberg's hospital course is as expected and they contemplated no further surgery on the 21-year-old athlete.

Sternberg was paralyzed from the neck down July 2 when he fell while working out on a trampoline. He underwent an operation two weeks later to stabilize his neck vertebrae.

Sternberg has remained on the critical list since the accident.

Gettysburg Wins Third Adams County Crown; Defeats Conewago 2-0

The Gettysburg Little League All-Stars copped their third straight Adams County Little League title as they turned back an extremely tough Conewago squad 2-0, Monday evening behind the two-hit shutout pitching of Randy Phiel. The contest was played before more than 400 fans on the Little League diamond at the Recreation Field.

The Gettysburg stars have now captured the championship the three years the annual affair has been in existence. Littlestown has been runner-up twice and this marks Conewago's first appearance in the second place spot of the double elimination tourney.

Randy Phiel, who has been one of the top pitchers in the league throughout the regular season, proved his ability in the tourney by winning all three games he has worked. Phiel allowed but two hits, Dennis Staub's single to right-center in the second inning and Mike Neiderer's single up the middle in the fifth. The Gettysburg hurler struck out five batters and walked only one. Gettysburg helped its own cause by playing errorless ball.

REDDING SHINES

The champs tallied their first run in the bottom of the second when Greg Redding drew a walk, stole second, went to third on a passed ball and scored on Dave White's single to center. Gettysburg's second tally came in the third frame. Randy Phiel drilled a single to right, and an error by the pitcher advanced him to third. Redding then punched a single to center driving in Phiel.

Not only did Redding pace the Gettysburg team at the plate with a perfect two for two, but he came up with some outstanding fielding plays from his short-stop position. Dave James also gave the winners a big boost defensively from his first base post.

Conewago, normally a heavy hitting outfit, failed to get good wood on the ball. Les Bowman's team did an exceptionally fine job in the field by time and again registering that vital play. Both of Gettysburg's runs were unearned and in the last two outs between the two squads, Gettysburg has scored six unearned runs.

Fairfield Little League

The Yankees tallied a run in the top of the fifth inning to win a close 5-4 verdict over the Cardinals and remain in a close second place position behind the front-running Giants.

Barry Lobingier got on via an error, went to second on a passed ball and scored on Ron Strayer's single. The winners tallied a run in the second and added three more in the third before their game-winning tally in the fifth.

The Cardinals jumped off to a 3-0 lead with three runs in the first inning. Darryl Nagle singled and Jack Deardorff doubled to assist three walks and two errors in producing the runs.

Deardorff pitched a fine ball game in his losing cause as he struck out 16 batters, walked but two and allowed three scattered hits. Nagle paced the Cardinals with a pair of safeties. Barry Lobingier turned in a fine relief hurling job for the winners.

DODGERS REST AS PHILLIES BEAT GIANTS

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Blue Monday? Not for the Los Angeles Dodgers. It's their favorite day.

First, it's often baseball's day of rest and the Big Three of the Dodger pitching staff say they need it. Second, the last two Mondays the National League leaders have sat on the sidelines and watched some of the also-rans knock off their principal opposition, the San Francisco Giants.

The seventh-place Philadelphia Phillies did the job Monday, rallying for a 3-1 verdict over the Giants that increased the idle Dodgers' lead from 3½ to four games. A week before, ninth-place Houston turned the trick, edging the Giants 5-4 and increasing the idle Dodgers' lead from 4½ to five games.

Then, too, there's the rest angle. And Johnny Podres, Sandy Koufax and Don Drysdale say they badly need it. The record bears them out. Their combined recent record is 5-6.

The Phillies' Johnny Callison and lefty Chris Short were the principal Giant-killers in the last episode. Short beating the Giants for the first time in his four-year major league career and Callison belting a decisive two-run eighth inning homer.

Boston edged Minnesota 5-4 and ended a nine-game losing string while Pittsburgh knocked off Houston 4-2 in the only other games scheduled in the majors.

1ST DUFFALO LOSS

Short, who had an 0-5 lifetime record against the Giants, spaced eight hits, struck out eight and walked only one. He got all the support he needed from Callison and Roy Sievers.

Willie Mays got one of the Giant hits and extended his hitting string to 14 games.

The loss was charged to Jim Duffalo, his first of the season.

Lou Clinton, restored to Boston's right-field job in a line-up shuffle, bashed two homers and drove in four runs as the Red Sox snapped their long losing string and a six-game Twin winning streak.

Jerry Lynch drove in two runs with a bases-loaded single in the first inning and his defensive replacement, Manny Mota, singled in another in the eighth in Pittsburgh's conquest of Houston. Bob Friend won his 14th of the season.

CLIMAX NEAR IN BUTTS TRIAL OF LIBEL SUIT

By DON MCKEE

ATLANTA (AP)—A climax appeared near today in Wally Butts' court fight for a $10-million libel judgment from Curtis Publishing Co. after the former Georgia coach burst into tears on the witness stand.

Butts broke down Monday after again denying Saturday Evening Post charges that he helped rig the outcome of the 1962 Georgia-Alabama football game.

His attorney, William H. Schroder Jr., indicated that the initial case for Butts might be concluded shortly. This is the seventh day of the trial.

OVERHEARD CONVERSATION

On the stand when court adjourned Monday was John Carmichael, Atlanta businessman and former associate of the publishing firm's star witness, George P. Burnett.

Carmichael testified he was standing outside an office door at the time Burnett said he was listening in on a telephone conversation between Butts and Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant of Alabama.

The Post said Butts fed data on Georgia's team to Bryant.

Don Stough, assistant pro at the Gettysburg Country Club, finished in a tie for fourth place in the Philadelphia Open golf tournament Monday.

Stough fired a 74-73-147 over the Aronimink course and received the $35 fourth place money.

Al Bessink, Philmont; Sam Penecale, Whitmarsh Valley, and Harvey Smith, Oak Terrace amateur, tied for the No. 1 spot with 144's. They will play over 18 holes at a time and place to be determined at a later date to decide the $500 first prize winner.

"Well, he said Coach Wally Butts had called Coach Bear Bryant and he had got hooked up in the conversation . . . and Coach Butts said some football player . . . was a great player . . . and Georgia had added two coaches . . . and Bryant was to call back . . ."

SOBS ON STAND

Carmichael said Burnett asked for advice about betting on the game, then nine days in the future. But Carmichael said he told Burnett to forget the whole thing.

Carmichael was called after Butts had testified the Post charges were not true. As his attorney read a Post editorial note charging him and Bryant with rigging the game, Butts sat impassively. Asked if the charge was true, Butts said:

"No. And I would like to explain that. For a time, I hid from people. But not any longer—because it is not true!"

Then he burst into sobs.

College Names Weekly Holiday

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Transylvania College students will have a midweek holiday beginning with the 1964 fall term. No classes will be held on Wednesdays, a day set aside for faculty meetings and student counseling. President Irvin Linger said this would result from a change in the academic program under which the average student would carry four 4-hour courses instead of three 5-hour courses each quarter. Students thus could work off all required courses their first two years.

TRUCK OWNERS COULD SAVE BY MODERNIZING

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — That old family argument over when's the time to stop paying repair bills on the old car and start making monthly payments on a new one is echoed today in offices of corporations that have their own fleet of trucks.

An estimated 7.3 million trucks are now operated by manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers, most owned outright but many leased.

Northwestern University's transportation center says 18,000 companies have fleets of 10 or more trucks.

AVERAGE AGE

Industry sources say the average age of commercial and industrial trucks that are company owned is now 6.8 years, compared with 4.8 years in 1941.

Truck makers contend that some of the age increase is due to sturdier qualities of the new models.

Truck leasing companies argue that much of the stretch-out in usage is due to the increased number of companies now owning their own fleets and to a yen (just like that of a family budget manipulator) to get a few more miles out of the old vehicles.

Both makers and leasers of trucks (common carriers as well) stress savings they see if obsolete equipment is ditched.

James W. Millard, manager of General Motors' transportation productivity research department, estimates industry might shave its material handling costs by $15 billion annually, if it modernized its transportation and material handling equipment.

He says that GM research teams have yet to complete a study of individual truck fleets without finding a savings potential greater than 20 per cent and are convinced that 10 per cent would be the minimum saving.

Armond J. Schoen, chairman of the American Automotive Leasing Association, says the number of leased trucks has increased from 240,000 in 1958 to 400,000 today.

He credits the drive by corporate financial officers to cut costs in all operations. But he adds that they face a new cost, that of obsolescence.

Shoen's own company, Wheels Inc., reports its study of 2,347 companies operating 47,841 trucks shows that gasoline driven vehicles 5 years old or older had operating and maintenance costs that averaged 3.1 cents a mile more than for younger trucks.

For diesel units the excess operating cost of the older over the younger trucks averaged 1.7 cents a mile when driven between 200,000 and 300,000 miles and 2.6 cents a mile when driven longer distances.

The leasing company president figures this out to a loss of $31,000 a year per million miles for gas units and $26,000 for diesel fleets.

worried about age? here's truth about hormones for face, neck and hands

NEW YORK (Special):—Reams have been written about hormones. Will they make women of 75 look 16 again? Absolutely not. Will they make women of 60 feel like they were 20 again?

To know the truth about hormones you need to learn just two simple facts: (1) The beauty of a woman's skin starts breaking down as signs of age begin, because the female organs fail to supply enough estrogenic hormones to feed the skin—less and less as you grow older. (2) Estrogenic hormones can be supplied to the skin by rubbing on a penetrating formula containing the hormones.

Here is a test reported in a scientific journal, one of many that showed similarly sensational results: Twenty-five women applied hormones to one side of the face and neck, and to one hand. On the other side and the other hand, a similar preparation containing no hormones was applied the same way.

These are the reports in simple words: Skin lines (or dry-skin wrinkles) quickly dimmed or disappeared from sight as creases and hollows filled out.

Blotches and "old-age freckles" faded on hands, face and neck. Skin was softer, clearer, seemed to lose its chronic dryness and take on a revived freshness and vitality. All these amazing things happened on the side where the hormones were used. Meanwhile no comparable changes occurred on the other side. The same withered, lifeless complexion.

Now to select a good estrogenic hormone preparation, here is what you need to know: the strength of the hormone preparation must appear on the label! The recommended monthly allotment for the skin is 20,000 International Units. The base should be as rich as possible in penetrating Sesame Oil and moisturizing Lanolin and when "rubbed in" your skin should not feel greasy or sticky. On first application, your skin should feel a radiant glow of revitalized youthfulness and refreshment.

An extra good buy in hormone products today is a preparation called HORMONEX Beauty Serum. It is made by a trustworthy 50-year-old laboratory. It is inexpensive to use. A 100-day supply costs only $3.50. Look younger quickly. See these dry-skin wrinkles smooth out, starting today! You may obtain Hormonex Beauty Serum at:

Desire To Be Free Drives East Germans Over Wall

EDITOR'S NOTE—The author of this article is one of hundreds of East Germans who have escaped to the West despite the Berlin wall, barbed wire, mine fields and trigger-happy guards. On the eve of the second anniversary of the wall she recalls her life behind it and the reasons people risk their lives to escape. She uses a pseudonym to protect her family and friends still in East Germany.

By KATERINA THOMAS

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—I lived for 16 months behind the Berlin wall. Except for the year my husband spent in jail during the height of Stalinist frenzy back in 1952-53, they were my worst months under communism.

Eight months ago my husband and I managed to escape. It meant leaving a large family home and garden where we had spent 24 happy married years. It meant leaving behind almost everything we owned, including the worthless sentimental things a woman treasures. It meant leaving friends with whom we shared hard and unforgettable years.

It was a sacrifice and a great risk. Other people might still escape by the route we took so I won't go into details.

FACE GREAT DANGERS

But we read every few days of the dangers people run to escape. They scale the Berlin wall in a hail of bullets. They swim the icy Havel River in freezing weather. They crawl through tunnels that might cave at any moment or run across mine fields that could blow them up at any step. Some are killed by Communist border guards.

What drives people to gamble their lives in order to leave their homes?

It might sound strange to American ears, but I'm sure the chief reason is the longing for freedom to think and do what one wants. The simple freedoms that Americans take for granted are worth a life to many East Germans.

YOU CAN'T BREATHE

It is simply that after a while you can't breathe any more. You are too restricted. Your ideas count for nothing if they do not agree with those of the Communists. Your individual wishes are ignored. A person's individuality and freedom count for nothing. This is what people learn to hate. This is why they leave.

What did I personally dislike most? I think it was the way children were treated. Probably more parents leave East Germany for the sake of their children than for any other reason.

SEES 'ONE GOOD'

I clearly remember Aug. 13, 1961. For years my husband and

I felt we should stay in East Germany. One has a responsibility to one's home and people, and problems are not solved by running away.

But we had finally decided to flee and our two children had already gone to the West. We planned to follow after a short vacation in a health resort. There we heard the news of Aug. 13. Our hearts sank. Our escape route was blocked. It took nearly two years to find a way out.

The one good the wall did was to wake people to the horror of communism.

Cashman Reunion Held On Sunday

The 33rd Cashman reunion was held Sunday afternoon at Pines Church with 60 descendants in attendance. President Ray Epley of New Oxford presided at the devotional period. The reunion opened with Psalm 100 and Lord's Prayer. The song "I Hear Thou My Prayer" was sung in memory of the late Rev. Albert Bell and Dr. W. A. R. Bell.

Communications were read from descendants from California, Iowa and Maryland. The genealogical report listed 19 births, 16 deaths and 10 marriages. Silver dollars were awarded to Paul Wolf, Abbotstown, oldest present, 87 years; youngest person was Craig Van Horn, two years; couple married the least time, Mr. and Mrs. John Van Horn, Millintown; traveled farthest distance, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Taylor, Tampa, Fla.

All officers were re-elected by acclamation: President, Mr. Epley; first vice president, Arthur Guy Cashman, Washington, D. C.; second vice president, William Cashman Sr., New Cumberland; recording secretary, Miss Vergie Musser, Gettysburg; assistant secretary, Mrs. John Hartlaub, Gettysburg R. 5; treasurer, E. W. Weaver, Gettysburg; pianist, Mrs. John Van Horn; genealogist, Arthur Weaver, historian, Roy Hoover, Elizabethtown. A collection was received. The 1964 reunion was set for the same place on the second Sunday in August.

Window Delivers Burglar To Cops

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—When apartment house dwellers reported hearing a noise, police who responded had little difficulty in capturing a man they booked on suspicion of burglary.

They said they found Larry Lopez, 33, trapped, his head stuck under a window that had slammed down upon him.

They added a second charge when they jailed him Sunday—drunkenness.

SELF - POLICING IS STUDIED BY STOCK MARKET

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Self-policing vs. government controls—an increasingly sore point in business-government relations—is brought sharply into focus today by an official study of what makes the stock market tick.

How the question is finally settled is of great importance to investors, large and small—and by implication to other parts of the business world fearful of increased or proposed government regulation.

BEST EQUIPPED

Stock exchanges and other handlers of securities think—as do leaders in many other industries—that since they are closest to their problems they are best equipped to regulate themselves and stop or prevent malpractice that blocks the stock-buying public.

They point to recent tightening of their own rules and stepped-up vigilance.

A special panel study of security marketing practices for the Securities and Exchange Commission holds—as apparently do many government officials in other lines—that self-regulation is fine but that the SEC should be given more powers to see that the policing is done, and along lines held by the government to be best for the investing public.

The theme of the study seems to be that "no business is eager for regulation" and firm "government oversight" is needed to see that the policing is done properly.

Stock exchanges do considerable policing of their member broker-dealers and several times of late have cracked down on rule infractions.

The much larger over-the-counter market of stocks unlisted on any exchange is regulated by the National Association of Securities Dealers, set up by law to supervise activities of some 5,000 firms, involving 100,000 persons.

SEC Chairman William L. Cary says his agency will discuss the issue of still stricter self-policing vs. more government controls with the stock exchanges and the over-the-counter leaders before asking Congress for any new powers—beyond those already sought and now currently before the House after passage by the Senate.

What Congress might do next year, if the issue is raised then, depends on many things—including the course of stock prices, any fresh scandals, the general trend of conservatism vs. liberalism.

Driver Charged In Fatal Accident

ALTOONA, Pa. (AP)—Robert Stanford, 28, of Lewistown has been charged with reckless driving and involuntary manslaughter in connection with a fatal accident involving his steel-laden tractor-trailer and three cars.

Stanford, still in Mercy Hospital recovering from injuries, was charged Saturday.

Elizabeth Mitchell, 40, of Cresson was killed in the crash on Route 22 near Duncansville Aug. 1.

Miss Kuusinen was writing in Pravda, the newspaper of the Soviet Communist party.

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—U.S. Ambassador Frederick E. Nolting Jr. presented President Ngo Dinh Diem's government with a check for $350,000 Sunday as the U.S. contribution to nuclear research in South Viet Nam.

The money will finance a nuclear reactor operating in the city of Dalat. It produces radioactive isotopes for research and medicine.

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—The U.S. destroyer Halsey Powell rescued a Chinese Nationalist air force pilot in the Formosa Strait Sunday after he spent 30 hours in a rubber raft.

Capt. Chiang Tung-ye ejected from his plane when it developed engine trouble.

TOKYO (AP)—Red China, seeking to capitalize on racial strife in the United States, is stepping up its campaign in support of "our American Negro brothers."

The official Peking People's Daily announced that "a tremendous meeting" was being held in the Chinese capital Monday to express Red China's "profound sympathy" for Negroes in the United States.

LONDON (AP)—Julie Gulliver says she is going to have a baby by the late Dr. Stephen Ward, the weekly newspaper The People reports.

The copyrighted article in the Sunday newspaper said the singer, 22, met Ward, 50, a central figure in the Profumo sex and security scandal, four months before he died from an overdose of sleeping pills he took as a jury was about to convict him of living off the earnings of prostitutes.

BONN, Germany (AP)—France has complained that it should have been informed about negotiations leading up to the U.S.-West German agreement on joint development of a new tank, government officials said Monday.

The complaint was made recently to the West German ambassador in Paris.

Under their new treaty of co-operation, France and West Germany are committed to consult one another on military matters. This was not done in the case of the tank agreement, reached during U.S. Defense Secretary Robert McNamara's visit to Bonn early this month.

FARM RIOTERS ARE QUELLED BY BIRDSHOT

PUTNAMVILLE, Ind. (AP)—Two prisoners were missing, two were hospitalized and five others were nursing minor wounds today after an Indiana state farm riot was quelled by shotgun-firing state troopers.

About 500 inmates of the unfenced penal institution fired the laundry and smashed through two doors to clean out a supply of narcotics in the farm hospital.

Troopers and guards began a systematic shakedown of inmates this morning and recovered part of the missing drugs. The search continued.

Arthur Campbell, state corrections commissioner, said after a sleepless night that the extent of the damage could not be determined immediately but there was no structural damage.

He emphasized that the troopers' shotguns were loaded with birdshot rather than the bigger buckshot pellets, "which would have killed some of the rioters."

The prisoners who evidently escaped, both from Muncie, are Robert Glen Stith, 19, serving a year for malicious trespass, and Samuel Eugene Crouch, 26, serving a year for jail break.

Walter Oliver, 19, Indianapolis, was struck above the temple and in the neck by birdshot. He and Frank Harrison, 33, Indianapolis, who suffered a scalp laceration from a thrown brick, were taken to Robert Long Hospital in Indianapolis.

Campbell said two-thirds of the farm's 1,400 prisoners did not join the riot and helped quiet the rioters.

The commissioner said the outbreak evidently was touched off by the death Sunday night of Merrill Hobbs of Indianapolis from pneumonia. Some prisoners contended he had not received adequate medical care.

BIG QUESTION ON MT. EVEREST

JACKSON, Wyo. (AP)—Among a group of Sherpa mountaineers who visited northwestern Wyoming Sunday was Nawang Gombu, who reached the summit of Mt. Everest last spring along with the first Americans to climb the world's highest peak.

One small admirer asked Gombu what he was thinking about when he stood at the rooftop of the world.

His answer: "How to get down."

Court Sidesteps School Problem

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—The 4th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, in a 2-1 decision, Monday sidestepped a ruling on whether Prince Edward County had the right to close public schools to avoid racial integration until Virginia's Supreme Court rules on the matter.

The majority opinion said that it was up to the Virginia court first to determine whether the state's school system was a state entity under the control and direction of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

The state and Prince Edward County have contended that Virginia's constitutional requirement for the establishment of a school system does not mean that a locality cannot, by declining to appropriate local school funds, withdraw from public school operations.

Public schools in Prince Edward, a southern Virginia county, were denied local funds and closed in 1959 to avoid court-ordered classroom desegregation.

The Gettysburg Times
Gettysburg, Pa.

Dear Sir:

I subscribed to The Gettysburg Times for six months prior to the centennial of the Battle of Gettysburg. My family and I planned to attend the centennial activities and we wished to keep track of the progress being made by the Pennsylvania Centennial Commission.

May I compliment you and your staff for producing a very fine daily newspaper. It appears to be concise and to provide excellent news coverage of your area. When we arrived at Gettysburg on the afternoon of June 30, we felt that we were visiting an area with which we were familiar, although we had never been east of Detroit previously. This was possible by reading your paper for six months before we made the trip. Also, we thought that your centennial issue was splendid.

Keep up the good work.

Very truly yours,

Crop Dust Mishap Hospitalizes 38

TOPPENISH, Wash. (AP)—A crop dusting mishap killed two cows and sent 38 persons to the hospital Saturday night.

Two planes were spraying a field of hops in the lower Yakima Valley about seven miles west of here with an insecticide that contained tetraethyl pyrophosphate, a poison that affects the nervous and respiratory systems.

Ordinarily, the spray settles to the ground, but a weather condition known as thermal inversion held it in the air, where it hovered in a white cloud.

Rancher Ray Cerna, 51, said he saw the cloud, hanging near the ground, and went out to a shed where he found two dead heifers.

Authorities evacuated 38 men, women and children in the area to a hospital, but only four were kept overnight.

JIMINEZ MAY BE SENT BACK TO VENEZUELA

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States agreed Monday to extradite former Venezuelan President Perez Jimenez to face trial in that country for alleged embezzlement of more than $12 million.

The long-awaited U.S. action was taken by Secretary of State Dean Rusk. It is the first time any former chief of state has been ordered extradited.

He was president from 1952 to 1958.

IN MIAMI JAIL

Some further procedures may be necessary before Venezuelan deputies actually take Perez Jimenez back to Venezuela. State Department authorities said these are technicalities which will be cleared up quickly.

Perez has been in jail in Miami since Dec. 12, 1962, pending the outcome of Venezuela's request for extradition.

The Venezuelan government has charged Perez with embezzlement of more than $13 million dollars in government funds and with four political murders.

PEREZ WHITE PAPER

Perez contended in a white paper his attorneys sent Rusk on June 13 that his safety could not be guaranteed in Venezuela because of Communist agitation and riots.

The report charged that Venezuelan President Romulo Betancourt is personally and politically motivated in seeking Perez' removal to that country.

It also said there is a complete absence of human rights in Venezuela and promises of a fair trial there cannot be trusted.

Perez fled to the United States in 1958 from the Dominican Republic where he sought refuge after his overthrow by a civilian and military uprising.

STATE YOUTHS ARE HUNG UP ON ROCK FACE

COLUMBIA, N. J. (AP) — Two mountain-climbing youths from Pennsylvania attacked the sheer rock face of Mt. Tammany at the Delaware Water Gap Sunday but when they had ascended 500 feet they found they couldn't go up or down.

The culprit in the three-hour adventure of Vern Laub, 18, and Jerry McClean 20, both of Hartsdale, Pa., was a fallen tree. They had jumped a crevice and were planning to use the tree as a bridge to return when the tree dislodged and left them stranded on a ledge.

They waved and shouted nervously while peering down the cliff to Route 611 and the Delaware River below.

HEARS CRIES

Gerald Hess, 21, was working at a rifle range of the Weygadt Boy Scout Camp, located beside the Delaware River, when he heard the youths crier for help. He sent Eric Sills, 15, for help and started up the mountain. Joining him minutes later were five other camp staff members.

The rescue party climbed above Laub and McClean and then lowered ropes. William Metzger and John Kintz, both 22, anchored the ropes while McClean and Laub climbed to safety uninjured.

Camp Director William T. Vincent said Laub and McClean were experienced climbers but they had tried Mt. Tammany before. "Our boys have gone up and down that mountain several times and they know better than to climb the face," Vincent added.

He said the camp had closed

8 Barges Crash Into Abutments

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Eight sand and gravel barges, weighing 450 tons, crashed into the abutments of the Tacony-Palmira Bridge Sunday in a freakish accident on the Delaware River.

The barges, each 30 by 60 feet, broke their lines as they were being moored by two hawkers to other barges at a pier of the Liberty Corp., a concrete firm. Patrolman Thomas Coleman sighted the drifting barges at 5.20 p.m., after they had been swept two miles upriver by the incoming tide.

Shortly after 6 p.m. the barges were towed back to the pier. Bridge traffic was snarled for about 20 minutes.

Box Of Infant's Bones Is Found

MYERSTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Police continued their investigation today into the finding of a box containing what they believe to be the bones of an infant.

Lebanon County Dist. Atty. Alvin B. Lewis Jr. said Monday the box was found Friday night in the basement of a Myerstown apartment building.

Mrs. Violet Miller Keller, a former occupant of the apartment, was being held for questioning, Lewis said.

No charges had been filed.

Friday and he and several staffers were cleaning up and preparing to leave. After their departure, only a resident ranger remained stationed in the area.

Mt. Tammany is north of this Warren County community and faces Mt. Minsi across the river in Pennsylvania.

SAYS FEDERAL GOVERNMENT CAN MAKE JOBS

By GEORGE ESPER
UNITY HOUSE, Pa. (AP) — A member of the AFL-CIO executive council said Monday that the federal government "could do a lot more construction work to provide more employment in the building trades unions."

Harry Bates, who is president emeritus of the Bricklayers Union, made the suggestion during an interview preceding the opening of the four-day summer meeting of the council.

Bates said he considered the matter of unemployment and alleged discriminations in unions, particularly the building trades, as the top items on the agenda of the council.

MANY NEED JOBS

Bates noted, however, that there was a general understanding that the AFL-CIO would do all it can to provide equal opportunities in employment.

Bates, referring to general unemployment, noted "We have lots of men out of work."

"We will try to take the steps necessary to try to see if we can provide employment," he said, but declined to outline what action might be taken since the executive council meets behind closed doors and does not make any announcements until it officially acts as a body.

Bates did not specify, either, the areas in which he felt the federal government should step up its construction program.

The council agenda also includes an over-all report to be made to the AFL-CIO convention in New York Nov. 14.

Proposes Title Match For Tiger

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Boxing promoter Archie Litman has proposed a title match in November or December between world middleweight champion Dick Tiger and the winner of a Rubin Carter-Farid Saïm bout.

A spokesman for Litman said the fight promoter cabled Tiger's manager, Jersey Jones, Monday and offered $25,000 for Tiger's appearance in Pittsburgh.

Carter, who is rated second among middleweights by the World Boxing Association, and Saïm, who is the middleweight champ of South America, meet in a nationally televised 10-round bout at the Civic Arena on Sept. 14.

BAY CLOGGED BY DEAD FISH OVER WEEKEND

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — Tidewater fisheries officials were reported meeting with Gov. Tawes Monday in an effort to solve the mystery of Maryland's newest and biggest fish kill.

Hundreds of thousands of dead fish washed ashore along Chesapeake Bay and its tributaries during the weekend, causing concern among residents, fishermen and state officials.

Biologists for the Tidewater Fisheries Commission worked overtime studying stricken fish collected from clogged waterways and littered beaches.

BIGGEST BAY KILL

Veteran watermen called it the biggest fish kill in the history of the bay.

It caused bathers to shun beaches, resort operators to complain of business setbacks, and summer home occupants of bay tributaries to close their windows.

NEW CONTRACT ENDS STRIKE AT HAT CORP.

NEW YORK (AP) — The strike of 1,100 hatters in the two plants of the Hat Corp. of America was settled with a substantial wage raise, Alex Rose, president of the Hatters Union, said Monday.

A three-year contract was concluded during negotiations with company executives here and union representatives from the plants, in Winchester, Tenn., and Sunbury, Pa. The plants had been struck for three weeks.

WAGE INCREASE

The contract calls for an increase of 40 cents an hour for the 700 employees in Winchester, to be apportioned over the three-year period—5 cents the first year, 15 the second year and 10 the third year.

In Sunbury, where the wage base had been higher than in Tennessee, the increase for the 400 employees will be 25 cents an hour, at the rate of 10 cents the first year, 7½ cents the second and 7½ cents the third.

Additional fringe benefits granted by the company, Rose said, include a third week's vacation for Sunbury employees with 10 years of service and two additional paid holidays, plus ½ per cent additional towards the welfare fund.

PENSION FUND

In the Tennessee plant, the company agreed to institute during the third year of the contract a pension fund, with a contribution of 3 per cent of the payroll. It also will contribute one-half per cent additional to the welfare fund already in effect, and will provide an additional paid holiday, improvements intended to bring the wage and labor standards of the Tennessee plant up to those prevailing in the rest of the unionized hat industry.

Aside from wage gains and fringe benefits, Rose said, the union obtained a commitment from the firm not to divert work from one plant to another.

Workers in Sunbury and in a hat plant, in Bethel, Conn., were particularly concerned about the job security clause, Rose said.

The Fisheries Commission, suggested the problem might have been caused by lack of water oxygen because of excessive plant growth, pollution by detergents or sewage.

DON'T KNOW CAUSE

"Although everybody's working on it, they don't know what causes it," he said.

Because of similar kills in other sections of the country, the federal government and several other states are studying the same problem, he said.

"There is a definite economic impact," Byrd said, but he declined to estimate how great it might be.

Capt. Sewell W. Dixon of Galesville, Md., called the kill "the worst I've seen or heard about," during his 30 years of taking fish-parties out in Maryland water.

Civil Rights Proves Touchy Issue For Both Political Parties As Election Looms

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — "If we must disagree," said Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, as if cheering up a debating society with a fairy tale, "let's disagree without being disagreeable."

This was his message Sunday to California Democrats already fusing among themselves a year before President Kennedy runs for re-election. Southern Democrats didn't get the message. Republicans won't, either.

The Southerners are so mad at Kennedy for his civil rights efforts that Mississippi gubernatorial candidates ran last week as anti-Kennedy men and Sunday Sen. Richard B. Russell of Georgia said: "I'm a Democrat but I have no intention of getting out and knocking myself out to support the Kennedy administration."

TO HEAD FILIBUSTER

Russell not only has voted against the President on a good part of his domestic legislative proposals but will lead the expected Southern filibuster against Kennedy's civil rights bill.

Kennedy was caught in a political revolving door on this one.

He had to be pushed into offering the bill—by direct action of Negroes North and South—and while it will cost him heavily among white Southerners it would have cost him among Northern Negroes if he hadn't.

WHERE TO TURN?

But the Southerners will have trouble deciding which way to turn if New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller is the Republicans' 964 choice to oppose Kennedy.

Rockefeller, whose state has a large Negro population, is plunging for civil rights legislation, too. He already is taking swipes at the one man who seems to have the edge on him at this moment, Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz.

Goldwater, idol of the conservative and far right Republicans, was recently admonished by Rockefeller, who can hardly be disturbed by the thought, that if he doesn't watch out he'll become a captive of the radical right.

NEGRO VOTE

The New Yorker accused the Arizonaan of writing off the Negro vote before the 1964 campaign begins.

Goldwater, who has made some strong statements on running the government without explaining all of them, retorted that he wasn't writing off anybody's vote and accused Rockefeller of encouraging political cannibalism.

He said Rockefeller was trying to get Republicans to eat Republicans and complained the governor was using the "guilt by association" technique in identifying him with the "radical right."

And at this very moment some of the Republican leaders in Congress have been cautious not only about the civil rights bill but about the limited nuclear test-ban treaty Kennedy recently got from Khrushchev.

While they hemmed and hawed, a Negro leader—Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People—tried to build a fire under them with a little warning.

"I am inclined to agree that the Republicans want the Negro to be free, but free somewhere over yonder."

POSITIVE POLICY

"If they are worrying about getting Negro support, instead of carrying on a negative campaign on the civil rights bill they should adopt a positive policy and out-Kennedy the Kennedys."

While white Southerners would be confused if they had to choose between Kennedy and Rockefeller Northern Negroes will be confused if Kennedy should not go less than all-out for his civil rights bill and they have to choose in 1964 between him and a highly conservative Republican.

Yet, if Kennedy loses Southern white votes over civil rights, his nuclear test ban treaty will get him votes elsewhere, which is something the Republicans in Congress can hardly be unaware of in deciding how to vote on the treaty.

Things ought to be getting more disagreeable right along now.

BOYLE'S
Grab Bag

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — People told Robert Stack, "Pretty easy work, isn't it? All that money for just making faces at the camera."

But Stack, after a four-year grind during which he appeared as agent Eliot Ness in 20 episodes of "The Untouchables," says he wouldn't want another television series now for all the prestige or money in the world.

"I'm a pretty fair athlete," said the actor who stands an inch above six feet and at 44 is still as trim as a boxer. "But there is a physical limitation to how long you can go on. Frankly, I couldn't have gone on for another year."

"It's a never-ending deteriorating kind of work. You finish a show Tuesday then start a new one on Wednesday."

"You develop a deep, deep fatigue. You have no residual strength to the simplest things."

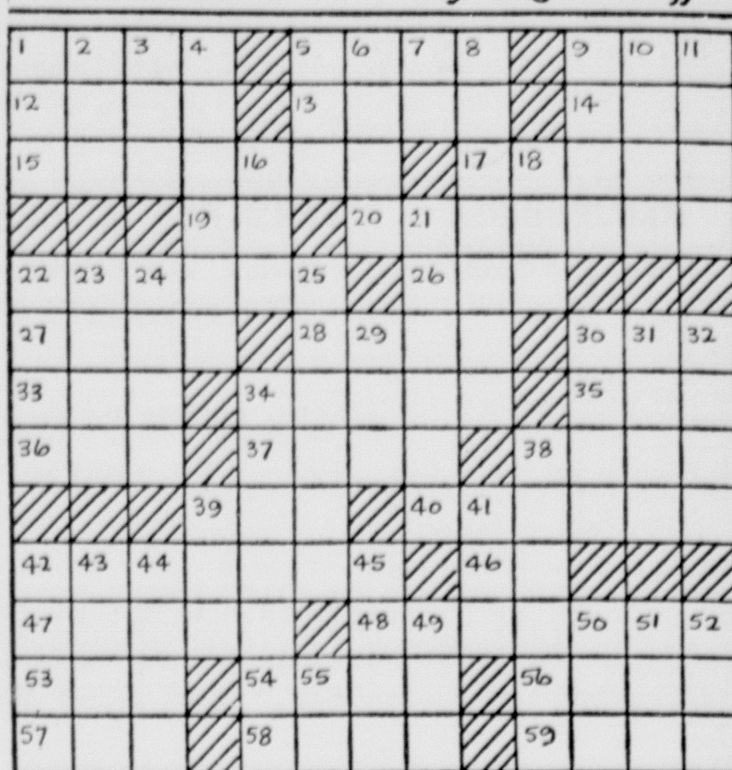

Stack finally turned in his revolver after he felt his eyesight was beginning to fade, and a hemorrhage of a vocal cord left him unable to talk for two months.

"I sold my interest in the series," he said. "I don't want to keep books on something unfinished."

But Bob retains a feeling of warm appreciation for his role as Eliot Ness, the name he is still CLEVELAND (AP) — The Temple Library here is regarded as one of the foremost congregational collections of English language Judaica (Jewish data) in the United States.

It is used both for general reading and special research. Miss Miriam Leikind was honored recently for service as librarian for more than three decades.

"The fun of a successful television series is that the set becomes a little world of your own," he observed.

"In a way you have more freedom than in motion pictures. You don't have to check with a bank to see if a certain actor is acceptable for a part. You can pick completely unknown actors as leads, and give them a chance to show what they can do."

Stack recently completed his 29th film, "The Caretakers," which costars Polly Bergen and Joan Crawford. This winter he will make in Europe "Cross of Iron," based on a German war novel.

A local boy who made good, Bob has known Hollywood notables on a first-name basis since his youth, when he first won renown as a national champion skeet shot. Later he served as a gunnery instructor for the Navy during World War II.

"Will Rogers was my father's best friend," he recalled, "and Mack Sennett bounced me on his knee as a kid. Growing up, through my skeet shooting, I got to know Gary Cooper and Clark Gable well."
